Dear Mr. Gates,

STAT Following my recent conversations with [redacted] it is my pleasure to confirm your appearance as a featured speaker before the Chicago Committee on May 5, 1987, from 12:00 noon to 1:45 p.m. Your appearance will be an important and interesting addition to our program.

We ask our speakers to address the group and then respond to questions from the members. The luncheon schedule will be as follows: 12:00 - 12:20, reception and informal discussion; 12:20 - 1:00, luncheon; 1:00 - 1:30, prepared remarks; 1:30 - 1:55, discussion and questions. All sessions of the Chicago Committee are strictly off the record, allowing guests to speak with absolute candor. I have enclosed for your information material about the Chicago Committee and about the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations in general.

We look forward to welcoming you to Chicago. It will be an honor and a pleasure to include you in our program.

Sincerely,

Anne N. McIntosh
